BLUEBELL

We are bright blue-purple spring flowers with a strong, sweet scent. Our sap has been used for glue to stick feathers to arrows or pages in a book. It is illegal to pick or uproot us – so don't even try!

Aderyn gwyn gyda gwddf hir a phig oren ydw i. Wrth i mi hedfan mae fy adenydd yn gwneud sŵn mwmian. Rydw i'n un o'r adar hedegog trymaf yn y byd.

I am a white bird with a long neck and an orange bill. As I fly my wings make a humming sound. I am one of the heaviest flying birds in the world.

BUTTERFLY

Rwy'n defnyddio fy nhafod hir, sy'n debyg i welltyn yfed, er mwyn yfed yr hylif melys siw-grog sy'n cael ei gynhyrchu gan bryfed sy'n sugno nodd. Rwy'n mwynhau hedfan o gwmpas yn yr heulwen sy'n tywynnu trwy'r coed.

I use my long straw-like tongue to drink honeydew, the sugary liquid produced by sap-sucking bugs. I enjoy fluttering about in the sunlight that comes down through the trees in the wood.

Rwy'n darparu cartref a man bwydo i adar, mamaliaid a phryfed. Mae'n bwysig iawn achos fy mod yn glanhau'r aer rydych yn ei anadlu trwy amsugno carbon deuocsid. Coeden golldail ydw i sy'n golygu fy mod yn colli fy holl ddail yn y gaeaf.

I provide homes and feeding areas for birds, animals and insects. I'm very important because I clean the air you breathe by taking in carbon dioxide. I'm a deciduous tree which means I shed all my leaves in winter.

Dydych chi ddim yn debygol o'm gweld yn ystod y dydd achos fy mod yn greadur nosol ac yn bwyta yn ystod y nos. Rwy'n chwilio am fwyd mewn coed a ger afonydd lle mae llawer o bryfed edeiniog i'w bwyta.

You are unlikely to see me during the day because I'm nocturnal and feed during the night. I look for food in trees and over water where there are lots of flying insects to eat. I like to sleep in trees.
